

Task Custom Fields | Microsoft Project vs Altus

What need to be considered when migrating to Microsoft Project vs Altus directly?

Consideration	 Microsoft Project Desktop	 Altus Schedule
Available number of custom fields	⚠ Limited	✓ Unlimited
Lookup table user experience	✓ Unchanged	⚠ Custom fields need to be updated in Altus
Post migration type	✗ Converted to single line of text	✓ Retained as a lookup table
Changes to lookup table values	✗ Cannot control or update values centrally	✓ Full control over values
Data available for reporting	✓ All custom fields (when mapped)	✓ All custom fields
Security role controls	✗ Cannot prevent fields being updated	✓ Fields can be locked to updated as required
Calculated fields	✓ Unchanged	✓ Can be added to Altus schedule
Roll-up fields	✓ Unchanged	✓ Can be added to Altus schedule

MS Project Desktop | Available Local Custom Fields

What need to be considered when migrating to MS Project vs Altus directly?

MS Project Desktop field types and hard limits

Date (9 available)

Duration (10 available)

Finish (10 available)

Flag (20 available)

Number (20 available)

Outline Code (10 available)

Start (10 available)

Text (26 available)

Text Fields

Four of the available text fields are reserved for use by Altus for Project to store some of the information.

Date Fields

One of the date fields is reserved for the protected actuals before (regarding timesheets).